

Don't Fence Me In

Few places in the world capture the imagination like the American West. From the range, ranch, reservation, and roadhouse, from the valley of the Rio Grande to the Bitterroot Mountains, the National Council for the Traditional Art's (NCTA) Don't Fence Me In: Songs, Music and Poetry of the American West explores the region's celebrated musical and oral culture. Cowboy songs and poetry, western swing fiddle and vocal harmonies, lively Tex-Mex polkas and rancheras, and Northern Plains powwow drum and song are performed by exceptional artists specially selected by the NCTA—all working cowboys and other authentic representatives of today's western culture.

Featuring Wylie and the Wild West (cowboy songs and High Plains yodeling), North Bear (Northern Plains Powwow drum and song); The Quebe Sisters Band (Western Swing and Texas fiddling); Los Texmaniacs (Tex-Mex Conjunto); Paul Zarzyski (Cowboy poetry)

Prior to this event you will have a custom designed campus tour of UC San Diego.

When: Monday, February 27, 2012. Tour begins at 9:30 from the Triton Statue at the front of Price Center (Student Center). Performance is from 11:00-12:00. Tour occurs regardless of weather. Please allow sufficient time for traffic, parking and finding the location on campus.

Where: UCSD - Tour starts at the Triton Statue at the front of Price Center (Student Center) on the lower level by the book store. The performance is at the Mandeville Auditorium. The closest parking garage is Gilman ($2/hr) <http://tesc.ucsd.edu/ring2008/images/map.pdf>

Cost: $5 per person. 2 and under are free

Who: All ages

SPACE IS LIMITED

Send your field trip request form with payment to your resource center by February 22, 2012.