

Bob Anderson

Education:

I attended Point Loma Nazarene University and earned a Bachelor's Degree in literature with an emphasis in English education. I later earned a multiple-subject teaching credential through National University.

Family:

My wife Rachel and I have 2 beautiful children, Eliza and Jack. We are fortunate to have their grandparents living nearby to visit with us on weekends and holidays.

Interests/ Hobbies:

I love spending time with my family and friends, woodworking, surfing, gardening and reading.

I look forward to a fun and productive year with all of my GSDA families!
