

Cal Day 2010

UC Berkeley

Saturday, April 17

9 am-4 pm

Cal Day, the annual open house at the University of California, Berkeley, is the perfect time for counselors to encourage students and their families to visit the campus. Come take an inside look at the world's leading public university. Visit labs and classrooms, hear talks by top faculty, take in student performances, and delight in the natural wonders of the campus. Admission is free for the day to Berkeley's museums, including the Lawrence Hall of Science, the Hearst Museum of Anthropology, and the Berkeley Art Museum; you also can visit research museums rarely open to the public. Sports of all kinds will be demonstrated, with a special football scrimmage and intercollegiate competition in tennis and baseball.

Newly admitted and prospective students can attend information sessions with faculty and staff in many fields and join the popular guided tours of the campus, residence halls, libraries, and other sites. School groups are especially welcome and free bus parking is provided.

Over 300 events for all ages round out the day's program. A complete schedule of Cal Day activities will be online later this spring at calday.berkeley.edu. Recorded information is available at 510/642-2294.

Public transportation to campus is excellent via BART or AC Transit buses.

To reserve school bus parking, please call 510/642-5215 by April 9.

Please help us spread the word by displaying this poster in a prominent location. We look forward to seeing you at UC Berkeley on April 17!