CALIFORNIA WOLF CENTER

Description:

The tour includes a presentation about wolves and wolf behavior, conservation, and the importance of top predators in our ecosystem along with examining wolf artifacts including skulls, paw prints, pelts, and radio telemetry equipment. There will be a special encounter with an Ambassador Alaskan gray wolf pack and a Mexican wolf pack and, if time allows, hands-on activities or games.

The California Wolf Center is a one-of-a-kind education, conservation, and research center. A visit to the Center provides a unique experience involving one of the most charismatic and controversial species in North American history.
