

SAN DIEGO JUNIOR THEATRE

PRESENTS

Little Women

Premiering February 11th at Noon

This is a lovely tale about the March family- a family who losses its wealth and gains much more—love and unity. This play shows us the beauty of simplicity during the Civil War and the importance of the small human deeds that count even though they cannot be visibly seen. The unique thing is the book was based completely on the true story of Louisa M. Alcott's own life.

Come join other GSDA families for a day at the theatre. Showtime is Noon at The New Theatre, 899 C St., (at 9th Ave.) San Diego. Recommended age is 8 and up. Tickets are FREE to GSDA students (while they last). Adults and non GSDA students are $5. Reserve now by calling Beci at the Miramar site (858)536-7930. Payment deadline is February 6th.
